Theyre Poisoning Us: From the Gulf War to the Gulf of Mexico an Investigative Report

By Arnold Mann

34th Street Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 296 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 5.9in. x 0.9in. Ten years ago, investigative reporter Arnold Mann blew the lid off Toxic Mold with a series of cover stories and features in Time and USA Weekend Magazines. Now hes back with the big picture. In his new book, Theyre Poisoning Us From the Gulf War to the Gulf of Mexico, Mann draws our attention to a global health crisis of exponential proportions, a toxic plague that has consumed the lives of tens of millions of Americans, rendering millions housebound. In Theyre Poisoning Us! Mann reveals the ugly truths about cover-ups, lies and deceptions by major corporations and government agencies, even medical organizations. From his Time expos on the sickening of hundreds in the mold-infested environs of Southwest Airlines reservations center in San Antonio, Mann goes on to expose: The hundreds of thousands of veterans whose lives have been destroyed by Gulf War illness in the biggest cover-up in American military history. The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention turning a blind eye to infants dying in mold-infested inner city housing. Thousands of Gulf of Mexico oil spill cleanup workers denied critical protective equipment, for appearance purposes,...
