RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 38 pages. OCLC Number: 53256814 Excerpt: . . . an audit of the independent evaluation. For national security systems, only the results of each audit of an evaluation were to be reported to OMB. For first-year GISRA implementation, OMB provided guidance to the agencies in January 2001, and in June issued final instructions on reporting results of annual agency security program reviews and inspector general independent evaluations to OMB to provide a basis for its annual report to 11 the Congress. These instructions listed specific topics that the agencies were to address in their reporting, many of which were referenced back to corresponding GISRA requirements. Agencies were to report their results to OMB in September 2001 - the same time they were to submit their fiscal year 2003 budget materials. In October 2001, OMB also issued detailed guidance to the agencies on reporting their strategies for correcting the security weaknesses identified through their reviews, evaluations, and 12 other reviews or audits performed throughout the reporting period. This information was to include a plan of action and milestones (corrective action plan) that, among other things, listed the weaknesses; showed required resources, milestones, and completion dates; and described how the agency planned to address those weaknesses. The guidance also required agencies to submit quarterly status updates of their corrective action plans to OMB. Corrective action plans were due to OMB by the end of October, and the first quarterly updates were due January 31, 2002. For fiscal year 2002, OMB provided the agencies with updated reporting instructions and guidance on preparing and submitting corrective action 13 plans. Agencies were again to report their GISRA review and evaluation results to OMB in September with corrective action plans due October...
