Fish Out of Water Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Love Vodka is a unique hybrid of travel memoir and love story that seamlessly blends outlandish humor, cultural insight and a steady stream of romance. It will appeal to male and female readers of multiple age groups. Although the book has the potential to reach across a wide spectrum of the market, the love story angle between two people in their early 20 s can be narrowed down to specific niche markets. The market bullseye would be readers in their 20 s-40 s, particularly the more free-spirited hipster sect. Anyone who has traveled abroad or is considering traveling will certainly connect to this book. The same can be said for anyone who is experiencing new love or pining for a love of their own. Love Vodka is a faithful reminder that there is someone out there for everyone. The world is large and rife with potential; one just needs to be willing to take a gamble and explore the possibilities that exist. On an even more specific level, the setting of this book couldn t be more timely: Ukraine. The conflict between Russia and Ukraine has put this region of the world firmly in the spotlight. Love Vodka provides a more positive, light-hearted, and humorous glimpse of that world, providing context for the events leading up to the crisis that began in 2013. As author Tony Hawks states, Not enough has been written about everyday life in the former Soviet Union, and it s captured beautifully here. Author Lev Golinkin in his praise for Love Vodka adds that Ukraine is a land that needs understanding now more than ever. Beyond the specific relevancy...
