Rex Imperator, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Roger Ballou s only source of pride is that he lives in Manhattan on the small income he makes as a writer. He can t remember the last time he had ambition, a cause, or a girlfriend. He s hot-tempered, cantankerous, suspicious - and as one acquaintance puts it, He looks like he s got Girl Scouts in his freezer. When business dries up, Ballou takes a teaching position at Van Devander College, in the little upstate town of Wildenkill. Almost immediately, his contentious personality throws him into the thick of the college community s rivalries, romances, and clashes of values. He also finds a cause: defending Willie Wilden, the iconic but politically incorrect college mascot. Willie Wilden lampoons the political, academic, and literary worlds all at the same time. It s a zany, stylish panorama of American values and foibles. -Jim Lesczynski, author of The Walton Street Tycoons If Dobrian were a painter, he d be Goya. His characters are comical, bizarre, grotesque - yet you will love to be in their company, walking in their shoes, seeing through their eyes, and hearing their voices rattle inside you. -Lynn Biederman, author of Teenage Waistland Dobrian fills a void in today s literary scene. His style is clever but easy to read, and he s unafraid of contrarian positions. -Roger Humes, director, The Other Voices International Project Roger Ballou is what you d get if you mated Miss Jean Brodie with Ignatius J. Reilly. -Casper Melick, author of Petain at Yeu: a Novel.
