Not illustrated. 1865 Excerpt: .donation from Canton, of old gold, --a sort of contribution then much in fashion. New Meeting-house Talked of. Female Contribution to Burmah. were baptized by the pastor; and when he left the place, in December, the church numbered ninety-five. In the same month, a committee was authorized to request the Rev. James M. Coley-to preach here for the ensuing winter. Brother Coley remained with the church till March, and devoted himself faithfully to its interests. By this time the meeting-house had become too strait to hold the congregation; and, during his stay, Brother Coley, with two others, was charged with the circulation of the first subscription-paper, the object being to enlarge the old meeting-house, or build a new one. (86) But little was accomplished, however, in raising money, at this early day; and no alterations were attempted in the old meeting-house, the church being generally dissatisfied...
