

The Midnight Turn

By Robert Hazelton

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Hollywood beckons! Genevieve St. Claire's novel The Midnight Turn became a big hit when it was initially released. Her meteoric ride to genre fame brought her to various conventions, talk shows and workshops across the country. When a movie producer decides to option the book for a big budget movie, her head spins with the possibilities, especially since she can't claim the rights to her first book, a well-known horror novel published in 1818. Gen's second dive into literature was inspired by her vampire creator, Christian Lark, an unpredictable and romantic figure she's polished into something a modern audience can tolerate. Enter the proposed leading man, Jacob Moran, wizard and descendant of the Lark line. His semblance is uncanny, his youth intoxicating but there's also Allan Taylor, the handsome screenwriter hired to adapt the book. With half a dozen lives intermingling amidst the chaos of film production, The Midnight Turn explores a human experience through the eyes of the supernatural. Enjoy the show!.
