Stone Donkeys Negative Shadows

By Maggs

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Margaret Bailey's story opens with her separated from an abusive mate, alone with two toddlers and struggling to get a foot hold in a new town. She jumps at the chance to become a pipefitter, a job traditionally held by men. The benefits would include lifting her family out of poverty and answering a question; what it is men do on their jobs that earned them the biggest and the best of everything although the woman in the home worked just as hard. She'd be vetted by a committee of journeymen who had plenty of questions that would validate her toughness. Are you afraid of working over water, asked one. She related how her mother and she would wake up about 3 a.m. many weekday mornings and walk the three plus miles to a seafood factory that was situated over water. She had her own crab knife and heavy duty plastic apron that slapped against her eight-year-old ankles. She'd slip her head through the neck hoop, loop the waist strings in the back, wrap them around...
